- 1.01 Units may not be occupied or used for any purpose other than as a private dwelling for the approved shareholder(s) and/or approved subtenant without the written consent of the Board. Guests occupying the unit for more than one month must be approved by the Board in writing. No guests may occupy the apartment unless the approved adult resident(s) are in occupancy or unless approved to in writing by the Board. If the unit is occupied by unapproved resident(s), then the shareholder(s) will be fined $100 per person per day. In addition the shareholder(s) may be held in default of their proprietary lease. All legal fees incurred as a result of an illegal occupancy will be billed to the shareholder(s).
- 1.02 Residents must comply with 19NYCRR 1226 - Property Maintenance Code of New York State (PMCNYS) including all sections relating to occupancy limitations as presently codified or as amended in the future. The NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Division of Code Enforcement and Administration standards are as follows:

“Determining compliance with occupancy limitations is a two-step process: First, determine the minimum square footage required per person for bedrooms as specified in PMCNYS section 404.4.1, which requires that every bedroom occupied by one person shall contain 70 square feet, and if occupied by more than one person, shall contain 50 square feet for each occupant. Keep in mind that the smallest bedroom allowed for one person (70 sq.ft) is barely enough space for a regular-sized bed and dresser. Second, consult Table 404.5 to determine the total number of persons that can be accommodated with the space available in living rooms, dining rooms, and kitchens. When there is a conflict between these two categories, the lower number of occupants governs.”

2.00 SUBLETTING

- 2.01 There shall be no subletting of apartments without the proper written consent of the Board of Directors.
- 2.02 If a unit is sublet without board consent, then the shareholder will be fined at a rate twice the amount of the annual rental fee and in addition may be held in default of their proprietary lease. All legal fees incurred as a result of an illegal sublet will be billed to the shareholder.
- 2.03 All requests for subletting shall be in writing on prescribed forms and shall be submitted to the Property Manager for processing. Requests for subletting must include: 1) payment of Rental Waiting List fee; 2) authorization and payment for an application fee and credit report fee for each unit occupant, 3) payment of the annual rental fee, 4) submittal of proof of renter’s insurance, 5) payment of inspection fee.

After the first year, sublets can be renewed by submitting a copy of the new executed sublease agreement and inspection of the unit performed by the Property Manager and/or Superintendent and payment of the inspection fee. The Board of Directors has the right not to renew the sublease at its sole discretion.

Shareholders whose name(s) appear on the waiting list will be considered for subletting on a first-come-first served basis. Once reached on the waiting list, a shareholder will have ten (10) calendar days to notify the Property Office of their intent to rent or not.
